THE ELECTION.

ALTHOUGH the result of the elections is conclusive as to national candidates in Fort Wayne, public anxiety over details of the struggle is still great. The intensity of public feeling in the matter has been too highly wrought up to be satisfied with the last few days' developments. In one respect men of all parties are thoroughly in unison. It is that the presidential problem has been definitely settled. This fact gives general satisfaction and it may be that the president's desire for such a "consummation devoutly to be wished" had a hidden and potent influence in achieving the result. The disturbing apprehension which agitated the body politic for so long a period after the struggle of 1876 will have no repetition in the year of 1880. Democrats and republicans alike, who have contended fiercely for months, can to-day join in expressions of satisfaction and glad relief that the great issue has been settled beyond dispute. A vast amount of detail remains to be made unquestionably clear. The paramount phase of the contest is quickly dissolving and failing as a means of excitement, and its rapid dissolution compels diversion of thought to phases of inferior degree for the satisfaction of an anxiety too great to be dispelled in a day. New food for appeasing excited feelings is sought with great avidity from the bulletin boards, around which eager crowds gather now and have gathered since last Tuesday. From returns and telegraphic dispatches received to day it is made sure that Gen. J. A. Garfield, of Ohio, is the president of these United States for the next four years.

The Freeman's Journal has started a subscription for the defense of the land leaguers arrested in Ireland.

The Chicago Inter-Ocean sent its election news over Illinois by special trains leaving Chicago early each morning.

The Lorraine Register appears to-day in a new dress, which fits its form to perfection. The Register is a newsy paper.

PARNELL will speak at a land league meeting on Sunday. The place selected is Athlone, and preparations for a great demonstration are being made.

The Cincinnati Enquirer is the name of a new German paper, to take the place of the Abend Post. The first number was issued yesterday.

The Methodist Episcopal board of missions has appropriated $10,868 for mission work in Central China, $20,000 for North China and $50,000 for the establishment of a mission in West China. The Chinese question is not dead.

The Boynton arrested in Ireland, have raised a point similar to that raised by the Fenians, but which was overruled. The Boyntons claim to be naturalized citizens of America, and will insist on being tried by a jury, six of whom are aliens.

THE NEW SHERIFF.

His Deputies and Other Officers. Sheriff Manson retired from his official position to-day, honored and respected by the entire body of citizens of Allen county, without respect to political leanings, and his place has been taken by his successor, Mr. Frank Cosgrove, one of the youngest men ever elected to a public office in this county, and who is expected to make an efficient officer.

The following is a list of the deputy sheriffs selected to serve under Mr. Cosgrove:
Platt J. Wise (re-appointed).
De Gröf Nelson.
Samuel Miller, of New Haven.
Mr. Gorman, of Lake township.
Edward Krausman, Fort Wayne.
John Hance, (re-appointed).
"Dick" Myers will be retained at the jail as turnkey.

Mr. C. M. Compant will hold his old position as bailiff for the criminal court.

There will be a meeting of the managers of the "Home, on Saturday, November 6, at 2 o'clock p. m., to make arrangements for a social and juggling. The ladies will please bring in the names of those to whom they have distributed tags, that they may be called in. Let there be a full attendance at this meeting.

FIRST EDITION.

2 O'CLOCK.

BLOOD-CURDLING

SENSATION DISCOVERED BY SENTINEL REPORTERS LAST NIGHT.

THE DEAD BODY OF A MAN FOUND SURROUNDED BY A DOZEN MEN, WHO HACK IT TO PIECES.

Two representatives of THE SENTINEL were taking a quiet stroll through the western part of the city last night, each with an eye open for "items," when they beheld, at the top of a high building, a light which they did not understand, and therefore determined to inspect more closely.

They soon reached the building, and found that a dimly lighted staircase led to the upper apartments. Silently the news-hunters ascended the stairs, until they arrived at the top floor.

"There!" said one. "I hear voices."

"So do I," returned the other. "We must advance cautiously."

They did so, through an empty hall, an unoccupied room and a deserted apartment.

Then a flash of light met their eyes. It was doubtless the same that had attracted their attention from the street.

Soon they came to a partially open door. They peered through the opening, when—

"Oh, horror!"

The sight that met their gaze was well calculated to freeze their young blood, and make their hair stand on end.

Upon a table, near the middle of the room, was stretched a ghastly object—the corpse of a human being, and over it stood a dozen determined-looking men upon whose faces the light, before referred to, cast a ruddy glow.

"There is some terrible mystery here," whispered one of the reporters. "Probably a murder," returned the other.

"No doubt of it. And look! they have stripped their victim, and are now hacking him to pieces."

"Too true! In the most cool and deliberate manner, the work of mutilating the corpse was going on. The skin had been removed from the face of the dead man, and some of the intestines lay by his side. And yet the mutilators were not satisfied. Their horrible work was still going on."

"This is horrible," said one of the beholders, in a voice louder than prudence would have dictated.

"Hush. They will hear you!" said his companion.

"Ah!" said one of the men who had been bending over the human carcass. "Who's there?"

"We must fly!" said one of the reporters.

"Too late!" gasped the other. "We are discovered."

The man who had discovered them walked quickly to the door and demanded the business of the intruders. "What shall we say?" faltered one. "Tell him we are Gazette reporters."

"Not by a horn!" They would murder us."

"Try the News, then."

"Worse and worse. Let's tell the truth."

They did so, and the effect was magical.

"Walk right in, gentlemen," said one of the dissectors. "Our operations are not usually made public; but representatives of THE SENTINEL are welcome at any time."

The reporters walked in, and were informed that the corpse was the body of a man who had been used as a "subject" for dissection.

COLLEGIATE.

SUCCESSFUL ENTERTAINMENT GIVEN LAST NIGHT BY THE THALONIAN SOCIETY

IN CONNECTION WITH THE CLOSING EXERCISES OF THE SECOND COLLEGE TERM.

The entertainment given last night by the Thalonian literary society of the Fort Wayne college, in connection with the closing exercises of that excellent institution, was one of the most enjoyable affairs of the kind that the citizens of Fort Wayne have ever had an opportunity of witnessing. The attendance was large, the room being quite filled. The audience included many of the friends and relatives of the pupils.

The programme, as previously published in THE SENTINEL, was carried out to the letter, and with great success. In order that those who have not seen the list of exercises, may have an idea of the nature of the entertainment, is here re-produced:

THE PROGRAMME

1. Instrumental music and gymnastic exercises, by the symphonic class.
2. Anthem, "O, my Lips,"—Choir.
3. Prayer—Rev. Mr. Miller.
4. Instrumental music, "A Ray of Sunshine"—Misses Cottingham and McElroy.
5. Essay—"Under the Surface"—Miss L. Brown.
6. Oration—"Is life worth living?"—J. A. Beatty.
7. Instrumental music—Miss C. Ferguson.
8. Dialogue, "Matrimonial Advertisement."
9. Song, "Call John"—Male quartette.
10. Recitation, "Over the Hills to the Poor House"—Ida Fitch.
11. Recitation, "Over the Hills from the Poor House"—Alice McMahon.
12. Song, "Consider the Lilies,"—Choir.
13. Voluntary address, "What man has done, man can do"—A. C. Gruber.
14. Duet, "Farwell"—Misses Thomas and Churchill.
15. Gymnastic exercises—Gymnastic class.

The following were the characters in the dialogue—"Matrimonial Advertisement":
"May Cole"—Jennie Banks.
"Grandmother Cole"—Ella Lincoln.

"Aunt Martha"—Lillie Compton.
"Jack"—Leroy Kridler.
"Cyrus Gordon"—Will Ashcraft.

The singers in the choruses, which were remarkably fine, were: Misses Fitch, Lincoln, Compton and Banks, and Messrs. Ashcraft, Gruber, Swain and Kridler.

Miss Thomas presided at the piano. The members of the gymnastic class were: Gertrude Clippinger, Georgia Miller, Belle Fessler, Gertrude Haines, Annie Thomas, Macy McCarter, Lura McGibbon, Lillie Compton, Belle Hendry, Alice Miller, Ollie Armitage, Kate Clugston, Laura Green, Mattie Minard, Kate Stemen, Carrie Green, Mattie Kridler, Lillie Wann, Emma Cottingham, Ella Lincoln, Effie McMahon, Jennie Banks, Nellie Mott, Emma Wallace, Ina Church, Kate Knox.

Teacher of the gymnastic class, Miss Ida Fitch.

The chair was occupied by Mr. J. A. Beatty, president of the Thalonian society.

Where everything on the programme was given in such an able manner, it would be difficult to single out one or more contributors for special commendation. Let it suffice to say the singing was sweet and harmonious; the instrumental music perfect; the recitations were excellently rendered, and the original readings gave evidence of marked ability, deep thought and careful study.

One of the most pleasing features of the entertainment was the exhibition given by the young ladies' gymnastic class, twenty-four in number. Their dumb-bell exercises, marching, etc., were performed with clock-work regularity, and with an ease and grace of motion that the most accomplished soldier seldom succeeds in acquiring. The young ladies were attired in a tasteful uniform—white Garibaldi waist and red or blue skirt. Each member of the class wore her hair hanging behind her back, neatly plaited.

The instrumental music which accompanied the exhibition added greatly to the effect. Mrs. W. L. Youcum manipulated the keyboard of the piano, keeping the most perfect time, and selecting pleasing airs.

After the entertainment was over, Rev. W. T. Youcum, a. m., president of the college, and Prof. J. A. Kible, one of the faculty, conducted two SENTINEL representatives through the extensive building, and explained the workings of the institution.

It had been the intention of the reporter to write an article that could be sent to interest the readers, with respect to the Fort Wayne college, but want of space to-day prevented its publication until to-morrow. Some facts and figures concerning the college and the Thalonian society, not generally known to the public, will be given in to-morrow evening's edition of THE SENTINEL.

CARELESSNESS.

A SWITCHMAN AND A TRAIN DISPATCHER IN TROUBLE.

TWO COLLISIONS CAUSED AND SEVERAL PERSONS KILLED.

BY RAILROAD EMPLOYEES FAILING TO DO THEIR DUTY.

CASUALTIES.

Terrible Accident in New York State.

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—This morning a freight train on the New York, Lake Erie & Western railroad had taken a switch at the Pennsylvania Horn Creek railroad junction to permit a passenger train on the New York & New Jersey road to pass into the tunnel. The switchman, it is alleged, failed to close the switch, and the passenger train ran into a caboose of the freight train, killing David Quackenbush, the engineer of the passenger train, the freight conductor and Garrett Voorhees, fireman of the passenger train. No passengers were hurt. Charles Bagley, the switchman, has fled. The engine of the passenger train was scattered in various directions, portions lying in the swamp twelve feet from the track. The freight cars were broken and thrown in every direction.

A Similar Case in Ohio.

CINCINNATI, Nov. 5.—Two freight trains ran together on the Marietta & Cincinnati railroad, near Moonville, on the eastern end of the road, yesterday. The engineer, Frank Lawhead, the fireman, and Charles Kreich were killed, and six of the crew wounded, none fatally. The cause of the collision is said to be the failure of the dispatcher to notify the east-bound train of an order to the west-bound train to run on its own time.

JEFFERSONVILLE.

Death of Annie Hand—Her Betrayal at Large.

Correspondence of The Sentinel.

JEFFERSONVILLE, Nov. 4.—This place is much excited to-day over the death of Annie Hand, the girl who took arsenic, alleged to have been given her by Wm. Hughes for the purpose of producing an abortion, and the release of her seducer. The poor girl was buried in the paupers' burying ground. Mr. Rakstraw, a stepbrother of the deceased, went before the mayor yesterday and filed an affidavit for murder against Hughes, and the release of her seducer. Went Give Him a Chance.

BERLIN, Nov. 5.—Count Harry Von Arnim has renewed his petition, based on a high medical certificate of the precarious state of his health, for a suspension of sentence against him, so that he might be tried for high treason, of which he believes he could prove himself innocent, has been refused by high legal authority.

The Morey Letter.

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—Nothing of importance took place in the Morey letter inquiry to-day, and the examination was adjourned until Tuesday next, to give the defense an opportunity to bring some witnesses from Massachusetts.

Shot Dead in Madison.

MADISON, Ind., Nov. 5.—George Glass was shot dead last night by Geo. Watson or Fred French. It is alleged that Glass hurried for Jeff Davis, and in the altercation which followed Glass shot Watson in the leg, and it is supposed Watson returned the fire, killing Glass.

Missionary Appropriation.

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—The general committee of the Missionary society of the M. E. church to-day appropriated $2,600 for missions in Mexico, with a contingent fund in addition of $14,614. A $30,000 appropriation for Japanese missions was also made.

Irish Militiamen.

DUBLIN, Nov. 5.—A band of men, numbering a hundred, partly armed, marched in military order and traversed an estate near Trillick, last night, forcing the tenants to swear not to pay above a certain amount of rent.

Score of the Pedestrian Match.

LONDON, Nov. 5.—At 10 this morning the scores of the pedestrians in the Astley belt contest were: Rowell, 432 miles; Littlewood, 387; Dobler, 373. Dobler is much better and going fairly, as are both the others. On account of the intense cold and a fog Littlewood wears a respirator.

SCORE AT 3 O'CLOCK.

Rowell, 425; Littlewood, 410; Dobler, 391. The leading men were going well, Dobler slowly.

The Daily Sentinel

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 5.

BY E. A. K. HACKETT.

THE season of spelling-schools and dances is upon us. Secure your partners.

THE Chicago Times is anxious to know what other Ohio man is in training for the presidency.

ACCORDING to the Public, the general business of the country is larger and more healthy than one year ago.

THE Terre Haute Gazette thinks it was the ancient mariner Dick Thompson that caused the democrats to lose Indiana.

DOWN in Marion county the republican treasurer, Hanway, has been found a defaulter in the sum of $37,969.77.

THERE is a snail in Her Majesty's household, Princess Louise, since her return to England, has not visited Queen Victoria.

THE Dublin Express says if the government plays with the land leaguers for another six months, there will be an armed uprising.

THAT Garfieldism is but a thin disguise for Grantism has all along been urged by the democratic party. Now it is made sure by radical boasts.

FOSTER, MATTHEWS, Taft and Sherman are looking at each other cross-eyed, each one pointing to a leg of Garfield's senatorial chair.

FOUNTAIN county nationals were not in accordance with the law when they voted for county officers last Tuesday, and all their votes are to be thrown out.

SHERIFF Frank Cogrove it will be to-morrow. Mr. Cogrove has proved himself a capable and careful deputy and succeeds Mr. Munson with all the pledges of success. Here's to you.

TENNESSEE has elected Hawkins, the republican candidate for governor, a debt-paying legislature, of which the republicans lack only four of having a majority, and two republican members of congress.

THE approaching trial of the Irish agitator is causing some considerable comment as to the plan of defense that will be used. It is asserted that several hundred witnesses will be called from rock-rotted estates.

COLLECTOR CUMBACK will not make an appointment of a successor to the late Deputy-Collector Phillips, at Madison, leaving the duties to be discharged by John L. Phillips, a son of the deceased, who has long been assisting in the office.

ANOTHER South American revolution is announced. Ventimilla, the president of the republic of Ecuador, has been deposed and his government disbanded. The purposes and character of the successful revolutionists are not known.

THE "women folks" will have a fine chance to display their political talents in the matter of state librarians, which office has, by common consent, been given over to the ladies. Already four candidates are named for the position.

THE newly elected state officers will take their positions on the following dates: Governor Porter, the first week in January; Attorney-General Baldwin, Monday; Clerk of Supreme Court Royce, on the 13th; Secretary of State Hawn, January 19; State Auditor Wolfe, January 26; Treasurer of State Hill, February 10; Superintendent of Public Instruction Bloss, March 18; Judge Woods, of the supreme bench, January 1.

THE sentiment of last Tuesday, whatever it may have been, of national issues, was against local rings with a vengeance. New York City, which gave Hancock 40,000 majority, gave the municipal ring a fearful hit and in Philadelphia, which gave Garfield 25,000 majority, the vote for Pattison showed the hatred of the ring. Thus let it be everywhere.

THE cry all along has been raised by the democracy that the election of General Grant would be a bad precedent to establish in this country, and this has been argued by many sound republican organs, and yet, before the electoral count of 1880 has been decided, the boast is made by the radical press that Grant will be elected in 1884. The Indiana Herald is a notable example of this imperial desire. It is the first to prophesy what the American people will not do.

THE SENTINEL was the first paper in Port Wayne to publish full and accurate returns from Allen county, which appeared the day after the election, and before even the committees had them. To-day it presents, in its local department, full accounts of two most important local events transpiring on last evening, viz: The wedding and reception of Mr. J. H. Wickersham, of Lancaster, Pa., and Miss Jessie Hough, of West Wayne street, and the closing exercises of the term at the Port Wayne Methodist college. THE SENTINEL aims to give all the news and the truth about it.

TO-MORROW the term of office of Sheriff Munson comes to an end, and there steps down and out one of the most faithful and gentlemanly officials ever in Allen county. Since Mr. Munson was first called to this responsible office, an office requiring steady and thorough labor and unremitting zeal, the county affairs, in his jurisdiction, have been administered with an impartiality and fair dealing characteristic of the man. Sheriff Munson will leave the office with the best wishes of all, and THE SENTINEL predicts for him success in any department of life he may choose.

CURRENT OPINION.

Honest Debts.

National Citizen-Soldier. Individuals should pay their honest debts when possible to do so. Uncle Sam should do the same to the soldier without quibbling.

At Work Already.

Indiana Herald. We are neither a prophet or the son of a prophet, but we will venture this prediction: Gen. Ulysses S. Grant will be chosen president of the United States in 1884 by the almost unanimous vote of the American people. Do not forget this.

Ohio Men.

Toledo Telegram. One Ohio man will step out and another Ohio man will step in. Who would be an Ohio man?

A Death Struggle.

New York Sun. No wonder the imperialist ring and the other rings made a desperate struggle yesterday. It was life or death with them, and they knew it.

Grant and the Empire.

Indianapolis Journal. Grant and the empire is what Conkling is driving at, and it is the republican programme to set the wheels in motion, if Garfield is elected, and consummate the scheme in 1884.

Won't Retreat.

Ligonport Pharos. We still say that "Hancock is the kind of a man," if he was defeated by the party that he helped to make powerful.

Reforming the Tariff.

Chicago Times. Very slowly, with shame-faced recollection, tentatively at first, but never again with zest, the republican journals which used to favor commercial freedom will crawl out from the holes they have been hidden in and will talk timidly of reforming the tariff.

A Prisoner's Queer Predicament. There was a very funny incident happened at the police station yesterday, and one which caused the guardian angel of the office, "Pop" Hemingway, considerable trouble. A drunken person was put into one of the cells on the lower floor, and lay down on the stone pavement to sleep. In the bottom of the cell door, and close to the floor, is an aperture nine inches in height and six inches in width, through which food is passed to the prisoner. The drunken man, it is said to suppose, tried to crowd through the hole, or else attempted a novel mode of suicide, for when an officer went into the prison to light the gas he found the man's head outside the door and his body inside the cell. Soap was brought into requisition, and the head of the unfortunate man with it, and then by the use of considerable force and trouble the unfortunate man was released from the position where he was slowly but surely choking to death, for he could move neither one way or the other until the soap had been applied. —New Haven (Conn.) Register, Oct. 27.

Something About Testaments. The American portion of the Bible revision committee has completed its labors, and transmitted the result to England. The British committee will meet in November for final action, and the university presses of Oxford and Cambridge are expected to issue the revised New Testament in February, 1881. The Old Testament will be published two or three years after. The American revisers have given their time and labor for eight years without compensation. The necessary expenses have been provided for by voluntary subscriptions. Any friend of the great undertaking who will contribute toward the expenses $10.00 or more before February next will receive a memorial copy of the first university edition of the New Testament, handsomely bound and inscribed. The money must be sent to the president, the Rev. Dr. Schaff, or treasurer, Mr. Andrew L. Taylor, in the Bible House, New York.

Of Interest to Fishermen. The Toledo Telegram says it is stated that Mr. Thomas Anderson, of Cleveland, has lately been traveling through the principal lake cities obtaining signatures to a petition to congress on December 1, urging a careful consideration of the fresh fish subject, and asking that a duty of at least 13 cents per pound be imposed into the United States. It is claimed that the citizens of the United States cannot compete with Canadian importers of fresh fish, owing to the cheapness of labor, materials and twine in Canada. While it costs 1 1/2 to 2 cents per pound to place Canadian fish upon our markets, it costs citizens of the United States from 3 to 3 1/2 cents. He has obtained 8,000 to 10,000 signatures to the petition.

THE AGED—Mental and physical debility of the aged begins with loss of appetite and sleep. These two potent causes of premature and rapid decline have their origin in defective nutrition and impaired circulation. Blood, the life-giving element, is the basis of all vitality. MALT BITTERS are superior to all other food and tonic medicines. They are rich in bone and fat producing materials. They vititalize with new life the process of decay. They dissolve and assimilate every atom of food, thereby enriching and strengthening the blood. They feed the brain as well as the blood, banishing nervousness, melancholy and sleeplessness. For every form of debility of both mind and body of the aged, MALT BITTERS are the purest and safest restorative in medicine.

MALT BITTERS are prepared without fermentation, from Canadian BARLEY MALT and HOPS, and are free from the objectionable ingredients of most food and tonic medicines.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 5.
AN ADDRESS
From the Democratic National Committee.

NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—All kinds of startling rumors were set afloat today in regard to some surprising action about to be taken by the democratic national and state committees, intended to prove fraud on the part of the republicans in New York state, more especially in the border counties and in New York city and Brooklyn. The members of the national and state committees were very mysterious, but admitted that some action would certainly be taken, and that promptly. The state committee held a meeting and issued the following address:

WHEREAS, It appears that at the recent election in this state the vote has been cast in certain localities largely in excess of the legal vote as determined by the recent census taken under the direction of the general government, therefore,

Resolved, That it be the duty of the several county commissioners of this state, and they are hereby requested by the state committee to examine such census returns and make a comparison with votes recorded as having been polled in the various districts of the county, with a view of ascertaining the extent of the fraudulent vote in the state, and forward the immediate result of such examination to W. A. Fowler, chairman of the committee, New York. The unaccountable increase in the republican vote in New York and Kings counties and the plain evidence of fraud in such vote, demand an immediate investigation on the part of the respective democratic organizations of the county.

Resolved, That all citizens of this state, in each and every locality, who favor the right of the people to popular government, and who believe a fair vote and honest count are essential to the perpetuation of our institutions, are requested to aid by all means in their power in the attainment of this result.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be forwarded to every democratic organization in this state.

A MAN IN A GLAZED CAP.
A Desperate Gang of "Baiters" are "Baiters" That We Led.

A few minutes before 11 o'clock last night an old gentleman ascended to the editorial rooms of "The Philadelphia Times" and told the city editor that he had struck the trail of a gang of B. I. more repeaters. "I was," he said, "having a glass of beer just now in the North American house, on Eighth street, below Chestnut, when a rather respectable looking man, dressed in dark clothes and wearing a glazed cap came in. He looked rather delicate, but his face, which was pale, had a very desperate look. I overheard him say that he wanted lodgings for eighteen men from Baltimore, and something about their having a hard day's work before them to-morrow. He is over there now waiting some one's orders." A reporter was immediately dispatched to the North American house to watch the movements of the gang. When the reporter reached the place the man with the glazed cap was not there, but he came in, sure enough, while the reporter was slowly imbibing a glass of beer. He went up to the young man in the office and the reporter overheard remarks to this effect: "You can put two in a bed." "They may have to be routed out at one, two, three or four o'clock." "Rouse up the whole gang at once." "All right; I'll bring them over." He went, and the reporter sat down at the table and waited. In about ten minutes the man in the glazed cap burst open the door and there followed him into the room eighteen—eleven boys in uniform, the biggest being four feet six inches high. At the same moment that the desperate man in the glazed cap cried "halt" to his "gang" the reporter marched out of the front door.

A SENSITIVE FELLOW.
A Story of the Russian Military.

Another story illustrative of the eccentricities for which Russian military officers of late years have rendered themselves notorious comes from St. Petersburg. Recently a lady of rank was traveling on the Fastov line of railway in a first class compartment, the only other occupant of which was an elderly cavalry captain, with whom she casually entered into conversation. Arrived at the Uskorka station, she summoned a gentleman to the window of her carriage and informed him that she missed 100 roubles from her hand-bag, and suspected her traveling companion of having stolen them. A few minutes previously she had requested him to take her ticket out of the bag, which he had done; and since that time she had discovered her loss. Search was forthwith instituted upon the captain's person for the missing money, and a 100 rouble note was found thrust into his boots. In the search of this evidence of his guilt he brought to light than he produced a small parcel of bank notes from his pocket, with the remark, "As you have got the 100 roubles, I may as well give you the other sixty." Directly after he had spoken these words he drew a revolver from the breast pocket of his coat, set its muzzle against his right temple, and blew his brains out. In a moment of detection seemed to him so insupportable, rather than endure it, he killed himself.

MICHIGAN PERSONEL ITEM.

Among the many who have experienced the remarkable benefits of the great german blood purifier, Hamburg Drops, Mr. Matthias Bausch, Cold Water, Mich. refers to the case of an acquaintance who after suffering for a year with indigestion, which physicians and remedies failed to relieve, was made well and hearty by the use of the Hamburg Drops.

WISHING FOR DEATH.—Since my return from the army I have suffered with severe pains in my lower limbs, which at times totally mitted me for any kind of business; and at other times the pain was so severe that I wished for death to relieve me of my sufferings. After having tried the best physicians and various well-known remedies without benefit, I procured a bottle of St. Jacobs Oil which relieved the pain instantly.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 5.

FORT WAYNE.

A seasonable call—"Shut that door."

Last evening was a good one for weddings.

Little or nothing of public interest will be going on to night.

Extra copies of to-day's SENTINEL can be obtained at the newsrooms and at this office.

Oleomargarine is sold by the grocer who tells you it is just from the cow. And so it is, but the cow is dead.

There is no rose without a thorn. The mild weather of the present time is resurrecting the festive mosquito. "Sunshine" is the cheerful subject of a lecture to be delivered at the Rink Sunday evening, November 14, by Lou J. Beauchamp.

The neck-tie social held last evening at the residence of Mrs. Rogers, Washington street, was a very pleasant affair, and well attended.

Mr. Gustav Lutz offers $100 reward for the arrest and conviction of the person or persons who set fire to the Bloomingdale brewery.

The official vote of Allen county has been canvassed and announced. It is practically the same as published in the SENTINEL on Wednesday evening.

Only think of it! Five thousand dollars' worth of beer was consumed by the late fire at the Bloomingdale brewery. The total loss is estimated at $36,000.

The social held last night in connection with the M. E. church, at the residence of C. G. Smith, West Washington street, was an exceedingly enjoyable affair.

The Fort Wayne Daily News, (the people's paper you know,) is hereby tendered the thanks of THE SENTINEL for its kind notice of the recent addition to the staff of the latter.

The marriage of Miss Hattie Miller to Mr. H. F. Jones occurred last evening, at the residence of the bride's parents, on West Main street. The happy couple left this morning on a wedding tour through Michigan, taking with them the best wishes of a large circle of friends, for their future happiness and prosperity.

Rev. Mr. Gross, of Buffalo, who some time ago received a call from Immanuel's Lutheran church, of Fort Wayne, as successor to the late esteemed pastor, Rev. Mr. Stubbs, has signified his intention of accepting the position, and will arrive in this city next week. The new pastor will probably deliver his opening sermon Sunday afternoon next.

The insurance companies that will have to stand the loss, to the amounts named, by the destructive fire of last Monday night are: Rhode Island insurance association, three policies of $595, $735 and $2,500 respectively; Hamburg Magdeburg, $1,500; Lancashire, three policies, $2,000, $2,000 and $1,500; Underwriters association, $4,000; total insurance, $14,930. The loss to Messrs. Rankert and Lutz will be over $20,000.

It has been ascertained, as the result of a careful and systematic investigation, that the fire which destroyed the Bloomingdale brewery, was found half full of the combustible liquid. A pair of pants, saturated with oil, but which were not burned, may possibly lead to the discovery of the guilty wretch.

This is the last day for Mr. Charles A. Munson in the sheriff's office, and we are extremely sorry to see him step down and out. He has held the office for two terms, embracing a period of four years. To say that he has made a good sheriff is not only expressing our sentiments, but the sentiments of the entire people of Allen county, regardless of party or creed. He has done his duty—nobly and good. He has worked earnestly and faithfully the entire four years, and retires with the best wishes of the people.

Mr. Cosgrove will take charge of the Sheriff's office to-morrow. Though he has the honor of being the youngest man that has ever filled that office, he will make as competent and skillful an officer as any of his predecessors.

We are glad to learn that he has retained Mr. P. J. Wise, as one of his deputies. Mr. Wise has been in this office in the capacity of sheriff and deputy for the past eight years, and to use a common expression, what he don't know about the office is difficult for any one to find out. He is honorable, upright and as honest as the day is long.

CUPID'S VICTIMS.

In an ante-room communicating with the supper-room, three tables had been placed, and on these were displayed the elegant and costly

THE WEDDING OF MR. J. H. WICKERSHAM AND MISS JESSIE HOUGH,

CELEBRATED LAST EVENING AT THE FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH,

FOLLOWED BY A RECEPTION AT THE RESIDENCE OF THE BRIDE'S MOTHER.

A MAGNIFICENT ARRAY OF ELEGANT AND COSLY BRIDAL GIFTS.

For several weeks past, Fort Wayne society has been on the tip-toe of anticipation, concerning the Wickersham-Hough wedding, which occurred last evening. This marriage has been justly regarded as one of the greatest social events of the season, and, in fact, of the year. As had been expected, from the moment that the marriage was announced, it proved to be a brilliant as well as a happy affair. The guests included representatives of nearly all of the very best and most wealthy families of Fort Wayne, together with a large number of ladies and gentlemen from other cities.

THE CONTRACTING PARTIES were Mr. J. H. Wickersham, one of the proprietors of the Lancaster, Pa., Inquirer, and Miss Jessie Hough, one of Fort Wayne's acknowledged belles.

The scene of the wedding was the First Presbyterian church, toward which edifice all the hacks of the city, loaded with elegantly attired ladies and their escorts, were rolling, between 6 and 7 o'clock. The church was appropriately decorated for the occasion. The bridal party passed under a horse-shoe, suspended over the center aisle, and above the altar Cupid's bow and arrow were hanging.

THE INTERESTING CEREMONY was performed by Rev. D. W. Mollitt, D. D., pastor of the church, and Mr. Charles Myers presided at the organ, from which, under his skillful manipulation, proceeded the thrilling strains of the "Wedding March."

THE BRIDE was attired in a dress of plain white satin and brocade, trimmed with pearl fringe and point lace, diamond ornaments, the dress cut en traine. A beautiful bridal bouquet was presented by Miss McKinnie, the handsome floral horse-shoe, before referred to, by Mr. Fred Converse, and the Cupid's bow and arrow of flowers by Prof. James Smart, of Indianapolis.

THE BRIDESMAIDS, Miss Wickersham, sister of the groom, first bridesmaid, wore a handsome blue silk, trimmed with bands of hand embroidery, rosebuds, daisies, etc., and lace cap. She also carried a basket of pink rosebuds.

The second bridesmaid, Miss Lillie Hoffman, was dressed in a white silk, hand-painted, with purple violets, lace cap and basket of purple violets.

Miss Virginia Hoffman, the third bridesmaid, wore a pink silk, painted white silk bands with pink rose buds.

The costume of Miss Lillian Wickersham, the fourth bridesmaid, was of cream silk, trimmed with lace and crimson roses.

THE GROOMSMEN, Messrs. W. D. Patterson, J. E. Bowman, William Henderson, and Master Leavitt, were dressed in conventional black, with white ties and gloves.

THE USHERS were W. P. Chapman, C. W. Edger, W. H. Fleming, J. S. Stevens, W. H. Ruthrauff and W. S. Openheim.

The ceremony was commenced promptly at the appointed time, 7 o'clock and at its conclusion, the company repaired to the residence of the bride's mother, Mrs. John Hough, 127 West Wayne street, where.

was to take place.

The house presented a bright and gay appearance, and as one carriage after another deposited its load of youth and beauty at the door, and as the rooms began to fill, and the band to play, crowds of interested spectators, male and female, old and young, collected on the sidewalk, and blocked up the way.

In addition to a strong representation of the wealth and culture of Fort Wayne, there were several GUESTS FROM ABROAD, including Dr. J. P. Wickersham, Miss Wickersham, Misses Lillian and Dora Wickersham, Mr. W. D. Patterson, Mr. J. E. Bowman and Mr. William Henderson, all of Lancaster, Pa.; Prof. J. Smart, state superintendent of public instruction, of Indianapolis; Mrs. Arthur Secor (formerly Miss Grace Walbridge), of Toledo; Mr. G. C. Tabor, of Logansport; and Mrs. G. H. Martin and Miss Julia Martin, of Chicago.

In one of the parlors, Schultz's orchestra was stationed, and an adjoining apartment was filled with young ladies and gentlemen, who enjoyed the delightful dancing to the splendid music of the orchestra.

THE SUPPER ROOM presented great attractions for most of the guests, for dancing and conversation, and the supply of refreshments was magnificent, and could not and did not fail to tempt the most fastidious.

JOE LYSPORTSMEN

Of Indians on a Hunting Expedition in Michigan—Names and Addresses of the Party.

A great many citizens of Fort Wayne had the pleasure, on Wednesday of this week, of beholding a large body of sportsmen, attired in true western style, armed with trusty rifles and accompanied by a number of magnificent dogs, staying at the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago depot for a short time, while en route for hunting grounds in Michigan. The company consisted of sixty-two men, who, with their warlike weapons and camp equipage, reminded the spectators of the war times of 1861.

Through the courtesy of Mr. Levi Mock, of Bluffton, THE SENTINEL is enabled to give this evening, a full list of the names and addresses of the gentlemen composing the company. The following is the list:

Capt. J. W. Miller, chief of the band.

Dr. C. W. Burket, Frank Nutt, D. Biddlecome, H. Sparks, J. Hoffer, T. Douglass and G. Pringle, Warsaw.

THE RAILROADS.

The Wabash is short of freight cars.

The Fort Wayne & Jackson company are putting in a new sidetrack on the west side of the main track, of the depot, at Reading.

All of the trunk railway lines in the country are being tested to their full capacity by the enormous amount of freight that is pouring in upon them.

The Wabash company now operates 2,404 miles of road. The total amount of fixed charges, including leases, per annum amount to $3,754,023, or seven per cent. on $22,800 per mile.

The management of the Missouri Pacific railroad has been ordered by Jay Gould, president of the road, to make connections with the Missouri, Kansas & Texas at Junction City, Kas., and with the Lexington & Southern at Nevada, Mo.

POLICE COURT.

Mayor Zollinger Presiding.

FRIDAY, NOV. 5.

William Fitzgerald, plain drunk, was fined $1 and costs. Judgment was suspended, however, in order to give the man a chance to leave the city, which he promised to do.

John Connors, a wanderer from Joliet, had also taken in too much corn juice. He was served in the same lenient manner as Mr. Fitzgerald. As he made his way from the court room, he was heard to murmur: "Oh, we'll be jolly yet. When we get to Joliet."

Jacob Follinger had been guilty of cruelly beating the wife of his bosom. He was arrested upon a complaint made by his better half, who, however, failed to appear against him this morning. He was convicted upon the testimony of the officer who made the arrest, and fined $15.

Another alleged wife-beater was in the prisoners' den. His name was Schaefer. No one appeared against him, so he was allowed to go.

POLITICAL POINTS.

A republican exchange says: Ohio has renewed its contract to run this country for four years more.

Garfield in 1880 means Grant in 1884, and a monarchy as soon after wards as the elegant Boscawen can accomplish his cherished purpose.

The Grant restoration is now positively dated for March 4, 1885. For front seats, apply to Senator Cameron, Harrisburg, Pa.

Boston came up smiling for Hancock, with 1,600 majority.

Hancock comes out of the contest with a spotless reputation. Garfield carries with him to the White House a smirched, blackened character.

Men who voted for Hancock voted for more than twenty-five cents a day and rats and rice.

A SENSATION.

What the Warsaw People think of the Biewend Divorce Case.

The Biewend divorce case, which was recorded on the circuit court docket, yesterday, as published in THE SENTINEL of last evening, is creating considerable interest in Fort Wayne, and a great deal in Warsaw, Ind. In spite of the election excitement that has been raging in that city, the "divorce sensation," as it is termed, has been and now is, a subject of almost universal discussion among the citizens.

The suit for divorce has been entered by Mrs. Biewend, the grounds for her action being the allegation that Mr. Biewend is an habitual drunkard and has been guilty of cruel treatment to his wife. Speaking of the unpleasant affair, the Warsaw Indian says:

"We, as well as all the citizens of this place, were astonished to learn, from a Fort Wayne paper, that Mrs. Biewend had commenced a suit for divorce from her husband, Edward F. Biewend, of this city. We say astonished, because the citizens of this place regard Mr. Biewend as one among the most exemplary and upright citizens of our town. We know that since Mr. Biewend's residence in this city, he has conducted himself with the utmost propriety. We do not believe that he has, during his residence here—now nearly two years—ever been seen under the influence of liquor, and his disposition is kind, affable, obliging and polite. In an interview with Mr. B. on the subject, he states to us that he believes his wife to have been improperly influenced by her relatives, and that the act is not hers, but is instigated and influenced by them. We feel sure that the citizens of this place, from what they know of Mr. Biewend, will greatly sympathize with him. He is doing a good business, is a careful, correct business man, and we have heard wholesale dealers declare that he is the best prescription clerk in the west. We regret the affair most deeply."

Criminal Court.

This tribunal was in session again to-day, Judge Borden on the bench.

The Burlager robbery case occupied the attention of the court throughout the day. The testimony for the state was all in by noon, when an adjournment took place.

Among the witnesses for the prosecution was George Morgan, who has served about twelve months of a term of five years in connection with the same robbery.

Morgan related every incident of the robbery in a straightforward and apparently truthful manner, and his evidence was very convincing against the prisoner.

The money stolen was $1,600, all but $25 in silver and gold, principally the former, and Morgan stated that it was conveyed from Gerhart Burlager's house in a bucket and a basket, the bucketful being so heavy that it required a strong man to carry it any distance.

The date of the robbery, it will be remembered, was March 3, 1879.

The evidence was all in by 3 o'clock, P. M., and judgment will probably be rendered this evening.

—Mr. John H. Bass has returned home after a pleasant trip through the southern states.

The marriage of Miss Hanna E. Turner to Mr. Philander S. Shook, was solemnized yesterday at 11 o'clock A. M., at the residence of the bride's father, ex-Commissioner Turner, in the presence of a large number of guests, including several citizens of Fort Wayne. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. P. Aylsworth, pastor of the Christian church. A splendid dinner was served up, and thoroughly enjoyed by the large company present. The presents to the bride were numerous and valuable.
